ISLE OF MAN CALENDAR

Welcome to the Images of Mann Calendar 2012

While recently teaching a photography day course, it became apparent to me, that beyond the obvious technical aspects and talk of equipment, the essence of photography is in the power of observation. Indeed, for the entire morning I encouraged my students to leave the camera bag in the car and walk around the landscape finding interesting viewpoints and angles. In this modern age of technical gadgetry and hectic pace of life, it is all too easy to ignore the beauty of our natural surroundings.

I hope that images like these are a way of reminding myself and others how fortunate we are to live on the Isle of Man.

About the photographer

Richard Kinley is a professional landscape photographer who lives and works exclusively in the Isle of Man. He sells prints in local galleries and art shops, and his work has been published internationally in photographic magazines. All images are taken on a 5x4 inch large format camera and are reproduced here to the highest possible standard.
